You agree to pay all invoices when due, and you acknowledge that any invoices not paid when due are delinquent and will be subjected to an 18% finance charge. You agree to pay any collection fees, including attorney's fees, that we should incur through our efforts to collect delinquent invoices. You certify that all information you supply is true and correct to the best of your knowledge, and you authorize us to obtain information regarding credit history from sources including but not limited to the references listed above and from credit reporting services. The extension, continuation and termination of credit are within our sole discretion and you agree that your continued solvency is a pre-condition to any sales to you by us.

Payment is due in full within 30 days from the date of our invoice (net 30 day terms) unless other terms have been agreed to in advance. If applicable, we will add sales tax to your invoice based on the ship to state, and you are responsible for paying this tax along with the product price unless you provide us a tax exemption certificate acceptable to the taxing authorities.

Any advice we may provide does not relieve you from your sole responsibility for proper product and service selection, use and maintenance. Our sales are subject exclusively to these terms along with the terms of any quotation or order form.
